Welcome to Rhosygilwen

Rhosygilwen is a family-focused wedding venue run by Cardigan locals. We invite you to have your big day at our stunning venue.

have partnerships with local wedding vendors if you want help deciding.

This is your opportunity to have a wonderfully personal and unique wedding.

You deserve a bespoke and special wedding day. And we should know, we've hosted plenty of happy couples and had several family weddings here.

We will give you complete flexibility to design your wedding the way you want. You choose your caterer, your florist and decorator. It's your day after all! We

Your opportunity to have a personal and unique wedding

Your day shouldn't be stressed, rushed or shared. You get exclusive access to the Oak Hall or Orangery for three days (Thursday evening - Sunday lunch). The choice is yours! Our team will devote their entire time to making your wedding dreams a reality.

At a glance

- Complete flexibility
- Work with our team to design your perfect wedding
- Exclusive hire for three days
- Eco-friendly and sustainable wedding day

A bride and groom are shown in profile, kissing. The bride is wearing a white lace wedding dress with a long veil. The groom is wearing a dark suit. They are standing in a church with large, arched wooden windows. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The floor is made of light-colored wood.

Dedicated to sustainability

Rhosygilwen is dedicated to sustainability. Our 55 acres are filled with wildlife and natural spaces including the Walled Garden and Arboretum. Our venue is powered by our own solar park, ground source heat pumps and bio-mass boiler. You can rest easy knowing your wedding is super eco-friendly.

The perfect place to say "I Do".

At a glance

Three days exclusive access including three nights in one of our Courtyard BnBs for the happy couple

Space for 150 seated guests and 220 evening guests

Celebrate until midnight

Catering kitchen

Undressed tables and chairs

Stocked bar

A member of staff dedicated to your three days

A photoshoot anywhere on our 55-acre estate (we recommend the Glass House or Walled Garden)

Additional accommodation for up to six guests available separately.

The Oak Hall boasts a lovely oak floor and a green oak frame. The Orangery can become a quieter area for later in the evening for your guests to sit and chat while still close to the music and dancing areas.

The Hall itself is an airy building with a lovely atmosphere which retains a feeling of warmth and intimacy, much of it due to a magnificent mural. The Hall looks just as stunning decorated with fairy lights (which are included!) and candles as it does dressed up with vintage bunting and rustic bouquets.

You can dress it up however you desire.
